
Never shown to the student: the reference solution (an oracle for differential testing and the target of the leakage gate) and the reasoning model's chain of thought, which is captured for audit only.